

EDITORS OF STATE WEEKLIES INVITED TO MADISON MEET

Short Course in Journalism Offered at Press Association Convention

MADISON, Wis.—All editors of weekly newspapers in Wisconsin have been invited to attend the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Press Association, to be held here February 1, 2 and 3.

A short course in newspaper work will be held for the editors by the school of journalism of the University of Wisconsin. The faculty of the school will hold conference periods during which editors may discuss their editorial and business problems.

The question of revising and standardizing rates for legal publications will be considered and it is probable that steps will be taken to have proposed changes in the statutes submitted to the Wisconsin legislature which will then be in session.

The three days program will be devoted to advertising as it affects the farmer, how agriculture needs the press and the latest ideas in typography, make-up and headline writing. Among the speakers will be C. C. Farlin, director of research for the Curtis Publishing company, C. W. Fustler, assistant secretary United States Department of Agriculture, Merle Thorpe, editor of the Nation's Business, and Gov. John J. Blaine.

Officers of the press association announced the cost of the convention will be very low. No charge will be made by the university for the short course and arrangements have been made to house the delegates at the Madison Y. M. C. A. for $1 per night.

DEMAND FOR JOBS IN EXCESS OF THE CALL FOR WORKERS

MADISON, Wis.—During the week ending January 13, 1923, applications for work continued to exceed requests for help at the eleven public employment offices of the state, the industrial commission reports. The number of placements was 1749, compared with 1576 the previous week and 1071 the same week a year ago.

COYOTES KILL PARTRIDGES

LAONA, Wis.—Coyotes are numerous in this section this winter. Woodsmen claim that the animals feed largely on partridges and have killed hundreds of these birds since the first snow.

"HOW ARE YOU FEELING TODAY?"

YOU can answer, "I'm feeling fine, thank you," if you keep your blood pure and your system toned up so that the germs which cause those heavy colds and other winter ills will be powerless to attack you. Gude's Pepto-Mangan, that famous old tonic and blood enricher, will fortify your system and give you strength to withstand the chilling blasts and sudden changes of winter.

Your druggist has it, in both liquid and tablet form.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmother's mustard plaster WITHOUT the blister. First you just apply it with the fingers. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, cramp, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frostbitten feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu." 25c and 65c, jars and tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster.

The condition of Fred Miller, 11-year-old son of Will Miller residing on the Mrs. Bell Miller farm, on the South Salem road, who was shot Saturday afternoon while snuffing with a boy companion for possession of a .22 calibre rifle, was reported as fair at the St. Francis hospital, where he was taken after the accident. He was weak from loss of blood when medical assistance arrived.

ADJUST STOCKMEN'S COMPLAINT

WASHINGTON, D. C.—More than a dozen livestock producers' organizations which filed complaints with the secretary of agriculture that members of livestock exchanges in Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul, Chicago, Fort Worth and Portland were charging unjust and discriminatory rates, have agreed to submit their grievances to adjustment by arbitration.

My Hair

Grows finer, thicker every year

By Edna Wallace Hopper

At my ripe age, my hair is such as justified hair roots deteriorate or any girl might envy. Heavy and luxuriant, lustrous, fine and clean, I have never had a gray hair, never falling hair, never a touch of dandruff. And every year, despite my age, it grows more beautiful.

I am not a girl, remember. For 31 years I have been a stage star, and am still. So I say to you that no woman's hair need grow gray, or thin out, or lose beauty.

Beautiful at 57

I owe my hair to my mother. She said, "Science knows some way to preserve one's hair. Let us find it." And we searched the world until we found the best that science offered. Mother died at 57 with hair like mine today. Never a hair turned gray. I used what she used, and every year my hair has grown more beautiful.

Scores of my friends, on the stage and in society, have secured like results by my method. So I am convinced that all people can secure them. And I am going to help them do it.

What must be done

Experts tell me that hair health depends on a healthy scalp. An oil called Sebum accumulates there, grows hard and clogs the pores. Dandruff attacks the scalp. Then the

WOULD OVERTURN OLD CUSTOM OF REQUIRING A UNANIMOUS VERDICT

St. Croix Solon Has Bill to Permit Decision of Five-sixths of Jury

MADISON, Wis.—The age old custom of requiring twelve men in a jury to pass upon civil cases as well as criminal cases and bring in a unanimous verdict may be overturned by this legislature, Assemblyman Ethan

B. Minier, St. Croix county, has a bill which will permit a valid verdict by five-sixths of a jury. In a jury of twelve men, acting on a civil case, ten men could bring in a verdict, or five in a jury of six. This proposal was endorsed by the people at the last general election, when a constitutional amendment to permit legislation of this kind was enacted. The law is favored by the labor organizations.

Mr. Minier is a lawyer and farmer. He was the only new member of the legislature to be given a committee chairmanship. He is at the head of the municipalities committee. Educated in the schools of New Richmond, he graduated from the Minnesota law school in 1900 and for many years was engaged in the practice of law at Amery. He is now living at New Richmond.

COAL OUTPUT INCREASES

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Production of both bituminous and anthracite coal is greater now than it has ever been this season of the year according to reports of the geological survey. 5

APPLICATION NOW BEING RECEIVED FOR GAME FISH PLANTING

MADISON, Wis.—Persons desiring to have game fish planted in specified streams of the state are urged to make immediate application to the Wisconsin conservation commission by Braxton O. A larger supply of fingerlings will be available this year than ever before, the commissioner says. He

MAN WHO PROVOKED ASSAULT IS DENIED PAY FOR INJURIES

Action Created Hazard Not Chargeable to Industry Says State Board

MADISON, Wis.—Any time a foreman provokes an assault upon himself by the use of provocative language in speaking to his workmen, he cannot collect compensation for injuries received, although while in the course of his business, a ruling of the state industrial commission established Monday.

The commission held that a foreman of a logging camp who was struck by a discharged workman, was not entitled to compensation on the ground that his conduct created a hazard for himself for which the industry was not chargeable.

This man is alleged to have cast a reflection upon the ancestry of one of his workmen. When he became conscious he discovered that his jaw had been fractured and numerous teeth knocked from his mouth, and at once started proceedings for compensation.

We believe the foreman's conduct has stamped him as the instigator of the epidemic assault which followed his remark," the commission said. "His action and words created a hazard to himself for which the industry cannot be made chargeable."

URNS BIG BUSINESS OVER TO EMPLOYEES VALUE FOUR MILLION

Biggest Terra Cotta Firm in World Sold at Nominal Price to Workers

CHICAGO, Ill.—Gustave Hottinger, president of the Northwestern Terra-cotta company, said to be the largest concern of its kind in the world, Monday announced a plan to turn over his entire business, with assets estimated at more than $1,000,000 to his older employees.

Mr. Hottinger came to Chicago as an immigrant from Vienna, Austria, in 1878 and two associates pooled $1,000 each and began the manufacture of terra cotta. A few months later increasing business demanded expansion and the plant capacity was enlarged, a process that has been repeated frequently since.

Now at the end of forty-five years, Mr. Hottinger has arranged to step aside for six employees who started as day laborers and during other executives, shop heads and foremen.

A new organization was created by Mr. Hottinger with 30,000 shares of no par common stock, 25,000 of which have been distributed to the 36 employees at $25 a share. The remainder was held in reserve for future distribution. In payment Mr. Hottinger took $1,500,000 in seven per cent preferred stock. To finance the new organization an issue of $1,500,000 first mortgage real estate six per cent serial bonds were sold.

Mr. Hottinger said he intended to remain president of the organization only long enough for the new concern to get under way.

All of those arrested are being held for investigation by federal and police officials today.

RAIL COMMISSION RULES OIL STOCK OUT OF THE STATE

Declares Deception is Practiced on Investors and Bars Seyler Securities

MADISON, Wis.—William Seyler and the William Seyler Investment company are barred from selling stock in Wisconsin, either personally or as a company, by an order of the Wisconsin railroad commission issued late Saturday night.

The commission also ordered that there can be no further sales of the M. T. C. or Ellukau oil company stocks in this state, until a readjustment of the affairs of the companies shows that there will be a "careful and legitimate conduct of their business."

These orders were issued on the basis of testimony developed at a ten days' hearing before the commission at which it was brought out that the Seyler company had sold $2,500,000 of stock in the M. T. C. and Ellukau companies to nine thousand southern Wisconsin residents, all of whom now face substantial losses.

L. R. Goffe, chairman of the commission, said that while the state body could take no court action against Seyler or his company, there was probably basis for a civil suit on the part of stockholders to recover losses suffered through what the commission declared to be deception on the part of officers and directors. It found that there had been actual misrepresentation of the financial affairs of the company by William Seyler.

BUTTERFLY SEEKS WARMTH OF HOUSE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

"Poor butterfly!" It's pretty tough for a little butterfly to be roaming around all alone at this time of the year. Perhaps that is why the pretty little yellow butterfly flew in at the open door of Fred E. Smith's home at 1817 Hayes street Sunday afternoon.

The creature seemed perfectly content in its new surroundings and remained undisturbed until Monday morning when Mr. Smith brought it down to the Tribune office as proof positive of the truth of his story.

LONGLADE COUNTY WANTS COURT KILLED

ANTIGO, Wis.—The Langlade county board passed a resolution asking the legislature to pass a bill abolishing the Langlade court and combining its functions with that of the county court. POLITICAL PLUMS BEING DISTRIBUTED BY THE GOVERNOR

Blaine Making Several Appointments to Office Before Vacancies Occur

DWIGHT T. PARKER MENTIONED
AS SUCCESSOR TO COUSINS

Hall Appointment to Conservation Body Expected Shortly

MADISON, Wis.—Governor Blaine has started a new policy with respect to appointments to office. On all appointments which must go to the state senate for confirmation during the coming eight months he is sending in the names at once. Several of the appointments submitted last week were for persons whose terms would not expire for months to come.

There is pending before the senate the appointment of L. A. Tarrel as a member of the industrial commission. His present term will not expire until June. On a number of the other boards Governor Blaine has taken similar action.

It is reported on high authority that during the week Governor Blaine will send in the appointment of Dwight T. Parker, Kenosha, as state banking commissioner. This office pays a salary of $5,000. Commissioner Marshall Cousins' term of office will not expire until May. Parker is one of the best known bankers of southern Wisconsin. He has been a life-long friend of both Senator La Follette and Governor Blaine, and has been active in progressive politics for a quarter of a century. He has been president of the bank of Kenosha since 1895. During the week it is also expected that Governor Blaine will name Elmer S. Hall, Green Bay, as a member of the state conservation commission. W. E. Barber resigned ten days ago and his term will end on February 1. For this reason the appointment of Mr. Hall is expected within a day or so.

Before the session of the legislature two years ago, Governor Blaine recommended a one-man conservation commission, with two departments in addition, one to take care of the forestry problems and the other to look after the fish culture in the state. This bill will go into the legislature during the week, and if it is passed, Mr. Hall will probably be designated as the head of the commission. C. L. Harrington, the present man in charge of the forestry work of the state, will probably be retained. Should the one-man commission bill pass, Mr. Harrington will be named to the forestry job. Should the bill not pass, it is understood in semi-official circles here that Harrington will be re-named to the commission.

There are still four important posts to be filled by Governor Blaine. He will nominate this week a man to take the place of John Morrissey as superintendent of public property. Mr. Morrissey has been elevated to a place on the state board of control. John Meeks, Wisconsin Rapids, and Andrew McDonald, Kaukauna, are mentioned. There is still a place on the state railroad commission to fill the place now held by Henry R. Trumbower. An appointment will probably be made to fill the post of commissioner of agriculture now held by C. P. Norgard and to the insurance commission, a place now held by Platt Whitman of Highland. Both posts will probably be filled by new men. A successor to succeed Mrs. Elizabeth Kading on the civil service commission will also be named. Mrs. Kading was last week appointed to the board of control.

MITZI BRINGING RARE GOWN HERE

In a gown of antique gold and bronze brocade, Mitzi is a living Van Dyck portrait when she appears as the ghost of her ancestral aunt in "Lady Billy," a new comedy romance, with music, which Colonel Henry W. Savage is bringing to the La Crosse theater Monday night, Jan. 29.

The charming prima donna comedienne is the replica of the portrait of the Countess of Paradoca, who died in 1647. Instead of her vision haunting the castle in a mist of white, she treads down the vanishing years in the royal robe that she wore when she posed, in life, for the great artist to paint her portrait which graces the corridor of the home of Lady Billy. History now can be offended at the gown which Mitzi wears in the presentation of this entrancing scene at the close of the first act.

PICKFORD PICTURE SETS SCREEN MARK AT COOPER HOUSES

"Tess of the Storm Country," starring Mary Pickford which ran six consecutive days at the Riviera theater and is now showing at the Strand, has established a record for attendance that tops anything ever done before by a motion picture at the Cooper string of movie houses. The picture, presented in a musical setting arranged by the Beyerstedts, scored a big hit in the north side house, playing to a full house every night of the six-day run. On Sunday it opened a three-day run at the Strand and drew capacity houses all day, the show being continuous from 2 p. m. to 11 p. m. From the Strand the Pickford picture will move to the Casino on Wednesday, to continue there for the rest of the week.

SCHOOL HAZING CHARGED

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis.—An alleged hazing case at the Eau Claire Normal school in which Chippewa Falls students figured, may result in interesting developments. The story of the hazing, as told by students, is that seven members of the Fex fraternity were seized by a student mob and subjected to degrading indignities, among them being the smearing of tar and floor varnish over their faces. Then they were paraded before the student body and marched through the library.

February 1 has been set aside by the railroad commission for further investigation of rates to be charged by the Wisconsin-Minnesota Light and Power company for electric services in the cities served by it. The commission is temporarily restrained from interfering with rates put into effect by the company, because of a temporary injunction obtained by it.

DR. GRANT STANDS BY STATEMENTS CALLED HERESIES

Reaffirms Views of Christianity for Which Resignation is Asked

NEW YORK.—Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, crowded as never before, reaffirmed Sunday the utterances which prompted Bishop William T. Manning to make a formal demand Friday that he either resign or speak from the pulpit of the Fifth Avenue church, in which he has been rector for thirty years. Dr. Grant failed to retract a single one of the statements which caused Bishop Manning's action and led churchmen to discuss the probability of a trial for heresy. Instead of retracting Dr. Grant repeated.

"Your son comes home from college," Dr. Grant said in closing. "You say, 'Son, let's go to church.' He says, 'I don't want to go to church.' 'Father, don't ask me to listen to all that junk!'"

Another Congregation Acts
At the same hour, members of St. Simon's Episcopal church in the Bronx passed a resolution calling upon the bishop and the ecclesiastical authorities to take steps to enforce the law and "censure of the church in such case made and provided."

The resolution charged that Dr. Grant had "slandered the sanctity of holy matrimony," had "uttered statements tending to the encouragement of the violation of the ordination vows of the clergy," had "denied the miraculous elements of the gospel," the divinity of Jesus Christ, and the Christian faith as contained in the apostles' creed.

Likes First Three Gospels

"I have always preferred to receive my picture of Christ from His associates," the rector said, "coming to the crucial point of His statement of disbelief. 'I would rather hear about Christ from Matthew, Mark, and Luke than from St. Augustine.'"

"I said last Sunday that when Christ was on earth He did not possess the power of God. This is certainly a teaching of the first three gospels, Matthew, Mark and Luke."

"Bishop Gore, a most eminent voice in the Church of England said that the virgin birth was not a part of the teaching of the early church. Jesus said: 'My Father is greater than I.' Is this not what St. Paul also affirms when he says, 'Christ emptied himself'?"

"Jesus was perfectly human. He and by under the influence of Plato in Greece and later under the influence of Aristotle in Rome, the idea of Jesus turned into a picture of a stern unbending judge instead of a loving shepherd. Then what happened? Manhood humbly went to the mother of Jesus to ask her son not to be so stern and then came the worship of the birth."

Dr. Grant expects to be tried for heresy. He declined Monday to indicate when he would make formal reply to the ultimatum of Bishop William T. Manning that he either resign or utter a statement that "Jesus did not have the power of God," or resign. He said that his sermon yesterday should not be construed as his reply to the Bishop.

"I will make my reply to the Bishop formally in the manner in which he addressed me," Dr. Grant said. "Those things must be done carefully and deliberately."

MOONSHINE TANK LOCATED BY DRYS THROUGH CEILING

WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis.—When moonshine liquor began dripping from the ceiling of a restaurant onto the floor and into the food of the diners here Saturday they became alarmed and summoned the police. An investigation disclosed several gallons of liquor on the second floor of the building and a large keg fitted with a copper pipe which ran down the side of the building under ground, into the basement of a building next door and up to the "bar" of a soft drink parlor where it ended in a dummy faucet in a water pipe, according to the police. Leonard Habeck, son of William H. Habeck, and one of the proprietors of the soft drink establishment was arrested for violation of the prohibition laws and released on $500 bond.

BLAINE FACTION SEEKS CONTROL OF UNIVERSITY BOARD

Propose to Change Make-up of Body to Allow of Appointments by Governor

MADISON, Wis.—Control of the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin is the subject of a letter from the Blaine faction of the legislature, with a result that two members are under way to change the make-up of the board, leading with the governor the power to appoint a number of members sufficient to give him, following a voting majority.

Senator W. A. Tamm, Fond du Lac, has introduced a bill calling for representation of two farmers and two laborers on the board. His bill would open the way to appointments that would give control to Governor Blaine.

A second move is now being considered by a number of assemblymen who plan a bill, increasing the membership of the board from 11 to 15. This would open the way for four appointments in addition to two that are to be made in February when the terms of two regents expire.

MOVIES

RIVIERA TODAY

Dignity upset is the greatest producer of laughs. For example, think of the everyday slip of the man on the banana peel or the dignified old gentleman, the top hat, the snowball and the small boy.

This fall of dignity accounts for several humorous situations in "Making a Man," a Paramount picture starring Jack Holt at the Riviera Theatre today.

If you can imagine your most upstage neighbor sitting in a mudhole while you and your friends look on merrily, then you can imagine Mr. Winsby's undignified position. The situation is one of unusual merriment and on the screen is much funnier than it sounds in description.

"BEAUTIFUL AND DAMNED"

Mario Prevost's latest picture, "The Beautiful and Damned," played before a delighted audience yesterday at the Riviera Theatre.

As Gloria Gilbert, the flapper who flaps herself into the hearts of a dozen men, Miss Prevost is excellent. The former bathing beauty's delicious sense of humor is in evidence throughout the situations of this rollicking picture of gilded youth, riches and ruin.

All who came in expectation of something out-of-the-way were not disappointed, for this is a screen adaptation of F. Scott Fitzgerald's best seller of the same name which intrigued thousands of readers, and which as a picture, is crammed with humor, tense drama, and strong situations—a sparkling, fast-moving story that has lost not one whit of its brilliance in the screen version.

Take a handful of fascinating flappers, a crochety aged million-aire bent on reforming the world, a young weak-willed but lovable spendthrift, a musical comedy song-brette, a successful film magnate—six well with the best that New York can offer in cabarets, jazz music and philandering and you have the ingredients that go to make "The Beautiful and Damned."

"SECOND HAND ROSE"

Gladys Walton can be seen in a new sort of role at the Majestic Theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

It is not only new for her but new to the screen. It is a role pictured from the popular song, "Second Hand Rose." The figure of "Second Hand Rose" was suggested to Universal officials as the heroine of a screen story. A. P. Younger, a scenario writer, was assigned to follow his ideas in the matter and write a story suitable for Miss Walton.

NEW MARY PICKFORD

"TESS" A GREAT HIT
Mary Pickford in her new "Tess of the Storm Country" has taken this city by storm! Devotees to this star taxed the capacity of the Strand Theatre at every performance on Sunday.

She has written an important chapter into screen history in the manner in which she has produced this picture for a second time in her brilliant career and, if it is true she essayed this revival with the idea of creating a classic, which would live posterity, there is every indication she has insured herself adequate success in the ambition. "Tess of the Storm Country" is at the Strand tonight and Tuesday.
